The purview of the President's Commission on Election Administration:

- (i) the number, location, management, operation, and design of polling places;
- (ii) the training, recruitment, and number of poll workers;
- (iii) voting accessibility for uniformed and overseas voters;
- (iv) the efficient management of voter rolls and poll books;
- (v) voting machine capacity and technology;
- (vi) ballot simplicity and voter education;
- (vii) voting accessibility for individuals with disabilities, limited English proficiency, and other special needs;
- (viii) management of issuing and processing provisional ballots in the polling place on Election Day;
- (ix) the issues presented by the administration of absentee ballot programs;
- (x) the adequacy of contingency plans for natural disasters and other emergencies that may disrupt elections; and
- (xi) other issues related to the efficient administration of elections that the Co-Chairs agree are necessary and appropriate to the Commission's work.
